3. Commission

The Owner agrees to pay 1 (one) month's agreed rent as service commission to MPS Realty, payable immediately upon tenant finalization, signing of the rental/lease agreement, receipt of advance, or handing over possession, whichever occurs first.

4. Rent & Commercial Terms

Expected Monthly Rent: Rs. _____

Minimum Acceptable Rent (if any): Rs. _____

Security Deposit / Advance: _____

5. Validity

This exclusive mandate is valid from ____ / ____ / ____ to ____ / ____ / ____.

6. Marketing Permission

The Owner authorizes MPS Realty to take property photographs/videos and promote the property on appropriate digital and offline platforms solely for rental/lease marketing. Confidential documents, personal information, access credentials and any information marked confidential shall not be publicly disclosed.

PROTECTION & CONFIDENTIALITY TERMS

7. Confidential Information

Confidential Information includes the Owner's identity and contact details, title and property documents, financial information, access arrangements, negotiation details, tenant/buyer information, business information, and any other non-public information shared for this transaction. Property information expressly approved for advertising is excluded from this definition.

8. Non-Disclosure and Permitted Use

Each party shall use Confidential Information only for evaluating, marketing, negotiating and completing the proposed rental/lease transaction. Neither party shall disclose it to any third party except employees, professional advisers, prospective tenants or service providers who reasonably need it for the transaction and are expected to keep it confidential, or where disclosure is required by law.

9. Data and Document Protection

Copies of ownership records, identity proofs, tenant applications, keys, access codes and other sensitive records shall be handled with reasonable care. No party shall misuse, reproduce or circulate such material beyond the purpose of this mandate. Upon written request or completion of the transaction, sensitive copies shall be returned or securely deleted, subject to legal, tax and record-retention requirements.

10. Non-Circumvention / Introduced Party Protection

The Owner shall not directly or indirectly bypass MPS Realty or conclude a rental/lease transaction with any tenant, company, representative, relative, associate or entity introduced by MPS Realty without paying the agreed commission. This protection applies during the mandate period and for 12 months after its expiry or termination, where the introduction, enquiry, visit or negotiation occurred during the mandate period.

11. Commission Protection

Commission remains payable if a transaction is completed with an MPS Realty-introduced party, even if the final rent, deposit, term, occupant name, contracting entity or other commercial condition is later changed, or the transaction is concluded after expiry/termination within the protection period stated above.

12. Exceptions

Confidentiality obligations do not apply to information that is already public without breach, was lawfully known before disclosure, is independently developed, is received lawfully from another source without restriction, or must be disclosed under law or a lawful authority. Where legally permitted, the disclosing party shall be notified before compelled disclosure.

13. Remedies and Survival

A breach of confidentiality or non-circumvention may cause financial and reputational harm. The affected party may seek recovery of the agreed commission, documented loss and any remedy available under applicable law. Clauses 7 to 13 survive expiry or termination of this mandate for 24 months; trade secrets and legally protected personal information remain protected for as long as required by applicable law.

14. General Terms and Jurisdiction

This mandate is valid in physical or digital form, including approval by WhatsApp or email. Any amendment must be recorded in writing. If any provision is unenforceable, the remaining provisions continue in effect. This agreement is governed by the laws of India, and courts in Chennai, Tamil Nadu shall have jurisdiction.
